Cape May County Association of Realtors Names
William Buchanan as “2017 REALTOR of the Year”

Swainton, N.J. December 12 —Cape May County Association of REALTORS[®] (CMCAR) is proud to announce William (Bill) Buchanan, Broker Owner of RE/MAX Beach Home Realty in Sea Isle City as the 2017 Realtor of the Year. Buchanan was recognized for his contributions to the real estate industry, commitment to the Realtor organization, and involvement in his local communities.

“Each year we have the honor of presenting this award to a deserving member,” said Ann Marie Uhlman, CMCAR[®] Executive Officer. “This year is no different as we honor Bill’s unique dedication and outstanding professionalism.” Volunteering for organizations in Sea Isle City like the Sea Isle City Revitalization Committee, Past Commodore of the Yacht Club of Sea Isle City, Past Chair of the Rotary Club and a volunteer member of the Special Olympics reflects his sense of community involvement. Serving as the 2017 CMCAR President, Buchanan’s enthusiasm for bringing the realtor community together is also contagious. The new programs he has implemented at CMCAR have refreshed REALTOR members and Affiliate business partners to engage with the association as volunteers and at social events. “Buchanan’s innovation, professionalism, and business savvy are propelling our Association farther and faster. His enthusiasm is contagious and his personality engaging which is probably why he was elected to his second term as President in 2018,” said Uhlman.

Buchanan was recently honored along with all the REALTORS[®] of the Year selected by New Jersey local boards/associations at the New Jersey REALTORS[®] awards session during the Triple Play REALTOR[®] Convention & Trade Expo in Atlantic City on December 7, 2017
