

Cape May County Association of REALTORS®
Carol Menz
2021 REALTOR® of the Year

Swainton, NJ —Cape May County Association of REALTORS® (CMCAR®) is proud to announce Carol Menz, broker-owner of Coastline Realty in Cape May, as its 2021 REALTOR® of the Year. Carol is recognized for her contributions to the real estate industry, commitment to the REALTOR® organization, and involvement in her local community.

“Each year we have the honor of presenting this award to a deserving member,” said Ann Marie Uhlman CMCAR® Executive Officer. “This year is no different as we honor Carol’s unique dedication and outstanding professionalism.”

Carol’s dedication to her business, team of agents and her service within the real estate community helped her stand out amongst her peers as she was nominated for her outstanding service. Carol’s service within CMCAR® and the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) spans over 15 years as CMCAR® and MLS Director and Treasurer in addition to serving on the Grievance and Professional Standards committees. Carol brings a variety of business skills to Coastline Realty with a background of sales and management experience in the hospitality and real estate industry. Her broad knowledge about real estate, her ease and familiarity with cutting edge technology, and her personal practice of going above and beyond the call of duty for her customers, make working with Carol like being a part of her family. Her clients remain friends forever. Carol stays current in all aspects of real estate by constantly attending a wide variety of classes and serves on many committees. She is innovative and always thinking outside the box to help her clients achieve their hopes and dreams.
